Roy's, guests experience a mix of delights and disappointments. While some praise the excellent beachfront dining, vibrant atmosphere, and attentive service, others lament inconsistent food quality and frustrating service mishaps. The highlight for many is the stunning sunset views, complemented by delicious dishes like lobster in coconut cream. However, negative feedback surfaces regarding outdated accommodations, lackluster meals, and cleanliness issues. The ambiance and hospitality offered by the staff, particularly Mr. Raja Roy, stand out, making it a memorable experience for some. For those seeking a reliable dining experience in Freetown, Roy's remains a popular, albeit polarizing, destination.
